Up, up and Away! Science program at Macomb County Library

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – Mad Science, a nationally known leader of science-based education is visiting the Macomb County Library to present “Up, Up, and Away,” a program about the principles of air and air pressure.

Participants in the program, which begins at 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 18, will learn the basic principles of air pressure and view demonstrations including the creation of a hot air balloon, giant smoke rings made by a vortex generator and a hovercraft in action.

The program is recommended for ages 6 and older, and is free and open to the public. Reservations are required and can be made by calling the library at 586-286-6660.

The Macomb County Library is located at 16480 Hall Road (near Garfield), Clinton Township. The library is open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday from September through May. Click on www.macombcountylibrary.org for dates and times of additional programs.

The Macomb County Library and its many programs and services are a public service of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners.
